A better ONYX TABLE than this could not be sold for $3.85 - fact is, that where you'll find this table the price will be a dollar or two more. It will compare most favorably with the $6 and $7 tables. Has gilt frame and shelf and gracefully shaped solid brass

"I want to be the Jeweier who comes into yourmind first."

C. H. DAVISON, Jeweler,

1105 F St. N. W.

BADLY HURT IN A RUNAWAY.

Produce Dealer Heffer and His Driver at the Emergency Bospital. As a result of a serious runaway, which occurred in the Smithsocian grounds about 7:30 o'clock this morning, Duniel Heffer, a produce dealer in Center Market, residing at Magnider's station, Prince George's county Md., and the driver of his wagon. George Halley, colored, thirty-eight years of age, are both lying badly injured at the Emergency Hospital.

Mr. Heffer and his driver were trying a new horse in the wagon, and in front of the Smithsonian building the animal became frightened and started off kicking up his hual legs at every other jump. Not Emergency Hospital.

his had legs at every other jump. Not on the grass and ran into a tree, throwing the driver against a large branch with such force as to knock him senseless. The borse continued kicking until he succeeded in smashing the dashboard of the vehicle in many pieces, and breaking Mr. Heffer's left leg above the ankle, and then Helfer received several other painful injuries besides a broken limb.

TURKISH UNREST.

Mild Revolutionary Rumors Come Constantinople, Oct. 22.—Reports have reached here that the Mussulmans at Ismid, a town in Asia Minor, fifty-six miles southeast of this city, are continuing their at

It is charged that a Turkish soldier at that It is charged that a Turkish somer at that place mode an assault upon a young Armenish girl, and threatened her with death. This charge is denied by the authorities at Ismid, but troops have nevertheless been hastily despatched to the scene. The public prosecutor at Ismid has started for Akhissar to begin an inquiry into the re-cent massacres there. cent massacres there.

According to advices received from Adana and Aleppo, a revolution propaganda of serious proportions is in operation in those sections. Agents of the propaganda are enrolling young Armenians under their standard, and arms, ammunition and dyna are reported to have been secretly im When he left Youngstown he immediately THE TIMES DAILY WEATHER MAP.

NOT MRS. SANFORD NO. 1

Lawyer Carrington Thinks He Has Evidence Against the Woman.

KNOWN BY SEVERAL NAMES

She Married Jerome B. Close in 1872 and There Is No Record of a Divorce. Later She Was Called Mrs. Stockholm and Next Mrs. Sanford-Inquest in Progress This Afternoon

The body of John M. Sanford was again exhumed this morning and taken to Lee's undertaking establishment where an inquest washeld at 3 o'clock this afternoon to determine, if possible, the cause of death. Some time after Mr. Sanford's sudden death a few weeks ago, suggestions of foul play were made, and a chemical analysis of the stomach disclosed arsenic. An inof the stomach disclosed arsenic. An in-quest is to be held for the propose of ascertain-ing whether the presence of the poison was due to the embalming fluid used or had been there prior to his demise. Both of Mr. Sanford's widows—Mrs. Rosa Stockhoin, his first wife, and Mrs. Mrs. Florida Crupper, his second wife— were expected to be present at the in-quest.

were expected to be present at the inquest.

A fierce legal contest will follow to obtain possession of whatever property
Mr. Sanford may have left. He made a will just prior to his death, bequeathing to his second wife, Mrs. Crupper, amounts largely in excess of what he actually owned, and both widows will struggle to secure the sum to which it is eventually simmered down.

FOUND IN THE COURTS.

FOUND IN THE COURTS. Maj. Carrington, attorney for Mrs. Flor-ida Fairfax Sanford, formerly Mrs. Crap-ida Fairfax Sanford, formerly Mrs. Crupper, and known as wife No. 2, to-day stated that he will be able to go before the coroner's jury and prove conclusively that Mrs. Crupper is Sanford's legal widow.

He alleged that "Mrs. Sanford No. 1" was never married to Sanford.

The alleged first wife, it is said, has always gone by the name of Mrs. Rosa Stockholm, This is the same Rosa Stockholm, Maj. Carrington says, who took out a marriage license with Jerome B. Close on August 7, 1872.

Such a license was issued then, but no minister's return is appended to it. Nevertheless, the two were married, for that is proven in the wife's petition for a divorce in March, 1875. That divorce was never granted, and if the Mrs. Close, nee Stockholm, is the same Mrs. Stockholm alleged to have wedded Sandford some years later, Maj. Carrington's surmise is, of course, correct.

HER SUIT FOR DIVORCE. Mr. Close in that instance saed her hardandfordiverceonthegrounds of cruelty harband for divorce on the grounds of cruelly and non-support. She said she had to leave him on that account. He frequently came home drink and kicked and abared her. One time, the said, he came with his two fons and broke in her door in the coad of the night and beat and kicked her while the lay in bed. He also falled to provide for her, the stated.

Mr. Close brought in an answer to his wife's bill denying everything. He admitted going to her room in this city on the night mentioned, and she would not let him in. He suspected there was another man in the room, he stated, and beat down the door, but he did not strike her.

The case went before Judge Wylie, Hundreds of pages of testimony were taken. Afficiavits were produced to show that Mrs. Close, or Mrs. Stockholm, was a woman of an adventurous spirit. An advertisement from one of the daily papers at the time was offered and the person to be addressed in the advertisement was identified with Mrs. Close.

addressed in the advertisement was identi-fied with Mrs. Close. She offered to be-come the housekeeper for a widower, and said she was "thirty years of age and

DENIED THE PETITION. After hearly four years, February 29, 1876, Judge Wylie issued a decree dismissing the sait.

Maj. Carrington insists that the MIrs.
Close referred to in the sait is the Mrs. Stock-holm who is said to be Sanford's first wife.

Mrs. Sanford, No. 1, is understood to have already renched the city, stopping with Mrs. Emeline Young, the wide wed sister of Mr. Sanford, at No. 46 I street northwest, but The Times reporter failed to obtain any information at this address. An elderly, round, silver-baired lady stood at an up-stairs window and calinly watch-ed the reporter as he frantically attempted to pall the doorbell from its fastenings.

but made no response.

In the fifth round between the contest. ants the doorbell let go, and the scribe was enabled to secure a very pretty while porcelain knob and three feet of bodly rusted wire as a souvenir of his visit and reception.

M. S. WINSLOW DEAD.

Well-known Young Washington News-paper Man Dies of Consumption. Milton S. Winslow died at the residence his mother, Mrs. S. G. B. Winslow, No. 1208 K street northwest, this morning about 8 o'clock of consumption.

Mr. Wieslow was about 23 years of age, and while be originally came from Gouveneur, N. Y., the most of his life has been spent in this city.

About two years ago he went to New York and accepted a position with the New York Tribune. He remained with that paper for about a year, at which time his health broke down, and he was compelled to relinquish the position.

He then took a brief vacation, and, as it was thought by all of his friends, regained his health. He then went to Johnstown. N. Y., and assumed control of the Youngs-town Daily News. This paper also he was compelled to leave after a short period of scraice owing to laid health.

Forecast Till & P. M. Wednesday.

For Eastera Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware—Fair, followed by cloudy weather, and possibly light local showers in Eastern Pennsylvania; winds shifting to westerly; warmer Weinesday morning and colder Wednesday night.

For the District of Columbia and Maryland—Fair, followed by partly cloudy weather; warmer Wednesday morning, followed by colder Wednesday night, southerly, shifting to northwesterly winds.

For Virginia—Generally fair; ensterly wisds, shifting to westerly; warmer in the interior Wednesday morning.

The storm, which was central over Caba, has apparently moved slowly to the north-eastward, and is now probably central east of gouthern Fiorida.

High winds continue over southern and winds continue over southern and Florids, but the conditions are eatening for the south Atlantic const-weather is generally fair, except heavy are reported from southern Florids the snow from the vicinity of Lake

During the past twenty-four hours—Key West, 1.42. It is much colder in the Northwest and warmer in the lake regions and the Missis-sippi valley. Generally fair weather will prevail in the sippi valley.

Generally fair weather will prevail in the Southern States. The cloudiness will increase on the Atlantic coast, with possibly light showers at extreme northern stations.

Condition of the Water.

High and low tiles as officially recorded at the Navy Yard for to-day are as follows:

High.

Low.

at the Navy Yard for to-day are as follows
High.

10:42 a. m.

10:42 a. m.

5:06 a. m.

5:05 p. ib.

Temperature and condition of the water at 8 a. m.: Great Falls—Temperature, 47, condition, 36. Receiving reservoir—
Temperature, 64: condition at north cosmection, 36, condition at south connection, 36
Distributing reservoir—Temperature, 54; condition at influent gatebouse, 36; efficient gatebouse, 36.

Schedule for Street Lighting,
Gas lamps lighted at 6:19 p. m.; extinguished at 6:11 a. m.

Naphtha lamps lighted at 6:19 p. m.; extinguished at 5:24 a. m.

CLOTHING ECONOMY

Take our suits grade by grade, $7.50, $10, $12, $13.50, $15, $18, $20 and $25—from the lowest to the highest priced-all show a considerable saving. It couldn't be otherwise, 'cause we're makers - first hands - and you pay one profit less here.

Come in and looknever mind about buy-

English walking suits -short cutaway coats with side flaps-are examples of what's in our $15 grade.

We want to sell you just one hat; that hat'll do the rest.

$3 hats for $2 because it's a new deptartment, and we're anxious for you to try it,

Eiseman Bros.,

Cor. 7th and E Sts. N. W. No Branch Store in Washington.

went into the mountains of New York State to try and regain his health, but while up there percept they grew worse and only about three weeks ago returned to his mother's home in this city. Just prior to his death he was content plating a trip to Florida. As yet no arrangements for the funeral have been made.

MURDERER HARRIS' TRIAL

Slayer of Mathew Spruell Very Nervous in the Court.

JURYMEN NOT ALL SELECTED

veral of the Talesmen Had Read the Account of the Case in the Newspapers and Were Prejudiced. Others Had Conscientions Scruples Against Capital Puntshment.

The trial of John, alias Patsy, Harris, indicted for the murder of Matthew Spruel, was begun by the partial selection of a jury this morning before Judge Cole in criminal coart, division No. 1. After an hour the panel was exhausted, eleven jurors had been chosen with, however, seventeen challenges at the disposal of the attorneys. Thirty-five talesmen were summoned to appear in the morning.

The story of the killing that placed Harris before the court this no answer with his life for the crime is brief. He lived with his wife in the second story town. Downstairs Matthew Sproell had a with his family in the rear rooms.

On the 4th of last July Harris' wife entered the shop about noon, and, it is claimed, to spoke to all around her save Spruell. Harris came in an hour later in partially intoxicated condition. Spruell asked why his wife had slighted him. Harris said he had told her to speak to no men. FOLLOWED WITH THE PISTOL-A quarrel resulted, and Spruell flour-ished a razor and Harris drew a revolver. A woman separated them, and Harris' pi tol was thrown into the back yard. It is sald he went on up stairs and a few minates later returned and passed through the rear door, picking up the revolver in the

About 2 o'clock Spruell started down Thirty-third street. Harris went after him. Seeing him coming, Spruell ran and Harris gave chase. At the corner of Thirty-third and M streets Spruell turned into a hallway and Harris fired a shot at him. As the fleeing harber tracked the him. As the fleeing barber reached the first stairway landing Harris fired a sec-ond bullet, that ledged in Spruell's abdo-men and produced death in an hour. The murderer was immediately arrested.

Harris is twenty-eight years of age, but he looks almost ten years younger. He is small, slender and coffee-colored, and his features were made lighter this morn-ing by the evident fright and anxiety he was laboring under.

When brought before the court he sat When brought before the court he sat between his counsel, Messys. Richard C. Thompson and Charles L. Frailey, who had been appointed to defend him, and watched every movement in the selection of the men who were to bave this life in their hands. He has a fairly intelligent face, and does not look like the ordinary negro criminal.

negro criminal.

Two men were excused by Judge Cole because they said they feit that they had been so biased by reading of the case that they could not render a fair verdict. They were Mr. Anderson Renz and Mr. Fred M. Lewis.

"You have reat" the newspaper accounts: they may not a rays be correct," said Judge Cole.

"I find that the things I have the

"I find that the things I hear through the newspapers are in most instances correct," said Mr. Lewis.

Six jarors had conscientious scruples against capital punishment. The others not left temporarily in the box were challenged by the lawyers.

The names of the eleven who may be per mitted to remain are as follows: Messrs.
Joseph W. Hooper, Frank Wells, Thomas D.
Water, J. D. Harris, Joseph S. Haas, C. M.
Beek, C. E. Addison, Emanuel Kempman,
Patrick Phillips, L. W. Hennon and W. E.

Pleaded Guilty and Not Gullty. The following persons were arraigned be fore Judge Cox this morning and pleaded not guilty to indictments against them: William Stanton, larceny; Thomas Col-lins, larceny from the person; George Smith, Smith, housebreaking, Mason Morris and Frank Boswell, robbery; Edward Tolson, reals do kill.

George Smith plead guilty to house-breaking; Amelia Baptist was convicted of a second offense of petit larceny and sent to Albany for three years.

Texas Sails for New York Fort Monroe, Va., Oct. 22.—The luttle-ship Texas sailed for New York at 10:30 this morning, where she will be docked and her machinery repaired.

THIRTBEN AGAINST HIM MSAONRY IS

William, Alias Joseph Sims, the Young Colored Thief, in Court.

Many Witnessee Testify Concerning obberies Committed by Him. Held for the Grand Jury.

William, alias Joseph Sims, the col-ored boy arrested by Detectives Lacey, McGine and Helas for housebreaking, to-day was held by Judge Miller in $500 bond for the record of for the grand jury.
Situs is the slick thief, who is suspected of having been doing all the house-breaking is the northwest section of the city lately. The detectives are fast placing the rob beries as his door, and had three of them against him in court this morning.

These cases have given the officers a boy has been so clever as always to cover up the method of his entrance into the houses, and it appeared in most cases as if the thief must have been in the house before it was locked up.

Thomas Taylor was the first witness in the box and testified to losing an overcoat, which Detective Rhodes recovered.

James Cooper, of No. 818 Seventeenth street, testified to losing a watch, a pair of spectacles and other articles, which were also traced to Sima.

There were thirteen witnesses altogether against Sima, and one of them was the boy who showed Detective Lacey where the trunk was hidden in the bushes near the bathing beach. The trunk was the chief evidence in the last case against Sima, and it was stolen from Charles Poole.

Sims entered the bouse by climbing

Bitus entered the house by climbing through a skylight over the kitchen, and he carefully closed it again after he left. The trunk, with a great many of the stolen articles, was discovered, and the boys captured, who had been sleeping in the bushes.

Sims was held in $500 bond and four of the witnesses, small boys with no homes were sent to jail to be held for the prosecu

FIVE REPUBLICS TO UNITE.

Treaties Between South American Countries Soon to Be Ratified. A step of far-reaching importance to the five Central American republics has been recently taken by Guatemain. This is, in brief, the negotiation of a series of treatles between Guatemala and the other republics

Aside from the material results which will follow their adoption, the fact is significant in that it paves the way for that unification of Central America which has long been the dream of her most advanced statesmen.

The treaties provided first, for absolute freedom of trade between Guatemala and her sister republics, except a nominal duty on salt from Nicaragua. They provide, secondly, for an loffensive and defensive alliance against European and other nations, and contain, thirdly, a recommendation that the diplomatic and consular services of the five republics shall be consolidated, thus greatly reducing the present expenses for this purpose.

for this purpose.

The five treaties will be submitted to the The five treaties will be submitted to the congresses of the respective republics at their next annual session, which will be gin a few months bence. It is not doubted that they will be ratified in each case. The object-lesson afforded the several countries in this matter has already been productive of good results. Nicaragua and Honduras have also framed a treaty similar to that which the other countries have made with founternal, and it is not have made with Gustennia, and it is not doubted that the next twelve months will see the five republics more closely cemented by additional treaties.

It is predicted, if this arrangement works. satisfactorily, that it will be followed with in a brief period by a still more advanced step, which will have for its object the formation of a federal union, each State preserving its separate autonomy, but with a nationall government modeled on the lines of that of the United States.

ARMES' CASE IN STATU QUO.

Military Awaiting the Decision of the Court of Appeals.

The detail for the court-martial to try Maj. George A. Armes, retired, on the prior to the decision rendered by Judge Bradley, releasing him from military confinement on a writ of babeas corpus, will or-be amounced until the legal question avolving the right of arrest shall hav seen determined in the courts.

J. N. Morrison, attorney for the Secre-tary of War, took an appeal from Judge Bradley's decision, and the court of ap-peals will hear arguments and render an opinion. Should Judge Bradley be susopinion. Should Judge Bradley be sus-tained, it is expected a further appeal will be taken to the United States Supreme

In the meantime the court-martial prothey will under no circumstances be aban doned, and are only deferred for the reason that the civil and military authorities can not at the same time have jurisdiction not at the same time have jurisdiction over an offender.

Whenever a final decision is rendered by the court of last resort, whether fa-vorable or adverse, the detail for a court-martial will be named and the proceedings cuted upon the charges alread;

Knapp's Death Hourly Expected. R. Knapp, the clerk in the disbursing of-fice of the Navy Department, who yester-day morning attempted self-destruction by shooting himself in the head, still lingers in an unconscious condition, but his death is nomentarily expected.

Drs. Hagner and Thompson last evening made an examination and decided that nothing could be done for the dying man. An attempt to probe for the dying man.
An attempt to probe for the bullet would prove fatal. Dr. Hagner said to-day that death is only a question of time, and does not expect the patient to live through the day. He has not regained consciousness since the commission of the act.

Postoffice Affairs. Third Assistant Postmaster-Genera Craige, in his annual report, submitted to day, shows the vast bulk of second class mail matter transmitted, and the com-paratively small compensation received.

If it's news, its in The Tiples.

Reports Showing It Submitted to the Supreme Council.

NORTHERN BODY IN SESSION

W. A. Hersbioer, the Acting Grand Commander, States That the Washington Lodges Have Had a Phenome nal Development-Appointment of Important Committees.

The Supreme Council, Thirty-third degree Masons, for the United States, the Territories and dependencies, began a three day's session this morning in the hall of the Scottish Rite, No. 908 Pennsylvania avenue northwest. A large number of dele gates and Masons of high degree

At 10 o'clock the council was called to order by W. A. Hershiser, acting grand commander. A roll-call was then made, ousiness of the day.

At the conclusion of the roll-call Mr. Her-shiaer then delivered his annual address, which occupied most of the time of the morning session. In the address it was shown that the order was in a flourishing condition, 190 bodies having made reports. The Washington lodges have shown phenomenal development, and in fact those which for the part two years have lain ermant are now in full vigor, and bid air to surpase any previous year in the history of masonry.

Mr. Herchiser said that it was not alone in the East that the marked increase was noticeable, but that all over the country an actonishing revival was going on. New bodies were established in California and New York

Reference was also made in the address to the death of Part Grand Commander John J. Gorman, of New York. Letters of condolence were also received from for-

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEES. The report in its entirety was referred to John Haight, of Marsachusetts; J. C. Krocen, of Ohio, and C. W. Edwards, of Albany, New York. There gendemen were appointed a committee to subdivide the

The following committees were then an-On General Administration—Hopkins Thompson, Edward Atwood, John G. Bar-ker, John B. Harris, and John Haight. General State of the Rite-Alexander At kinson, J. J. Stoddart, and George Gibson. Rituals and Ritualistic Matter-W. A. Herstiser, C. W. Edwards and John C. Constitution and By-laws-Willard C. Vanderlip, E. J. Edwards and J. J. Stoddart.

Finance—Edward W. Atwood, Robert L.
Wright and J. R. Harris.
Jurisprudence—E. J. Edwards, J. C.
Sims and J. F. Calhoun.
Foreign Relations—John Haight, George
Gibson and John G. Barker.
Deceased Members—David W. Thompson,
J. C. Krosen and Maj. W. Bayliss.
Return of Subordinate Eodies—W E.
Vanderlip and Granville Frambet.
Dispensations and Warrants—John G.

Dispensations and Warrants—John G. Barker, C. W. Edwards, and John Haight. Unfinished Basiness—Hopkins Thompson, M. R. Cooper, and J. H. Van Deman. An adjournment was then taken for lunch, which was tendered the visitors by the Washington body. W. W. Carpenter will address the delegates to-night at a tmoker to be given at the Masonic Temple, corner Ninth and Patreets north-

THOSE WHO ARE PRESENT.

Among those present at the session this William A. Hershiser, Lieut, Grand Commander, Columbus, Ohio; Granville A. Frambes, Grand Mindster of State, Grand Rapids, Mich.; David W. Thompson, Grand Treasurer General, New York; John G. Barker, Grand Secretary General, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Wil'd C. Van Derlip, Grand Master General of Cere, Boston, Mass.; E. Junius Edwards, Grand Marshal General, Minneapolis, Minn.; Maj. W. Bayliss, Grand Standard Bearer, Washington, D. C.; William J. Burton, Grand Captain of the Guard, Providence, R. L.

rovidence, R. I. Peter O. Anderson and W. W. Carpenter, Grand Marshals of the Camp, Brooklyn, N. T., and Waltham, Mass. W. C. Vanderlys, Edwin S. Foster, Commander-in-chief Grand Consistory of Mas-sachusetts; J. Frank Calhoun, Commander-

Consistory of Ohlo.

John A. Glidden, for New Hampshire; M.

R. Cooper, for Florida; George Gibson, for District of Columbia; Gardiner C. Sims, for Rhode Island . nor Rhode Island.

David W. Thompson, N. Y.; John B. Harris, Brookiyn; John G. Barker, Brookiyn;
John Haight, Summerville, Mass.; W. A., Hershiser, Columbus, Ohio; E. Junius Edward, Minneapolis; Calvin W. Edwards, ward, Minneapolis, Calvin W. Edwards, Auburn, N. Y.; Willard C. Vanderslip, Bos-ton, Granville A. Frambes, Mears, Mich.; Joseph C. Kroesen, Columbus, Ohio, Rob-ert L. Wright, Troy, N. Y.; Maj. W. Bayliss, Washington, D. C.; Alexander Atkinson,

WILL NEVER MAKE OVERTURES. Mr. Alexander Atkinson, a thirty-thire degree mason and one standing very high in the order, was asked by a Times reporter this morning what constituted the likelihood of their ever coming tegether again. He replied: "Our branch will never make overtures "Our branch will never make overtures to the other jurisdiction for a consolidation. We did that once, and after the articles of consolidation had been signed, through the manipulation of Gen. Albert Pike, our grand commander, deserted us and started the other affair, and we shall never ask them to come back. If they wish to return they will have to make the re-quest, and if they do not eventually they will be forced to.

"The differences between this branch and the other is that our jurisdiction is a representative form of government in keep-ing with the Government of the United States. The Southern jurisdiction repre-sents a monarchical form of government where the officers succeed each other. That s the main difference.

"This supreme council was organized in

STRANGERS

OTRANGERS visiting Washington are in-O vited to examine our stock of Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry, Silverware, etc., etc., in which there is to be found innumerable articles especially manufactured as

SOUVENIRS.

This represents the original Washington Souvenir Spoon, made and sold EXCLUSIVELY by us.

GALT & BROTHER,

1107 Pennsylvania Ave.

READ THIS AND PROFIT THEREBY!

which means a saving of 25 to 40 per cent. profit to every purchaser, but in or

$1,00 Discount to every purchaser of a Man's Suit or Overcoat Today.

405 7th Street N. W. Wholesale and Retail Manufacturing Clothiers.

FACTORY AND

SALESROOM,

402 AND 404

PENN ST .. READING, PA

1807 under the original constitution of 1762, when there was no other supreme council as an organized body in existence in the United States. Under this constitution there can be but one head of Scottish Rite Masonry under any one government. Uwners of Land

AMERICAN SECURITY & TRUST CO., 1405 G ST. C. J. BELL, President.

gress passed a law to prohibit the sale of liquor there, and I am going to do all I can to help them."

HIGH ON MAHER.

His Backer Bets $5,000 He Can Whip Pompadour Jim. Hot Springs, Ark., Oct. 22.—Joe Vendig while irregular, was in the main firm.

The news was generally favorable, it having been reported that the Reading will advance the price of coal on Thursday and that there was no truth in yesterday's rumors that the bitumineus coal miners in Ohio intended to quit work.

Another favorable development was

Another favorable development was the increase in the exports of domestic merchandise and produce for the week, the custom-houes return giving the total at over $9,000,000.

Wheeling and Lake Erie, Hocking Valiey, Tobacco, General Electric, Lake Shore, and Northwest improved 1-4 to 5-8 per cent. Kansas and Texas preferred sold down to 34 3-8 on liquidation, and subsequently rallied to 35. Chicago Gas and Sugar were irregular.

After 11 o'clock the market was weaker on Lendon reports of another decline to on London reports of another "Kaffirs." New York Stock Market.

1335 F street during the past two years. The pur-larger than that in the National Museum, and it is their intention to purchase the ad-joining property and establish a museum of their own.

Roome, of this city, acted as grand commander. At the noon session the Royal Order degree was conferred upon the foliowing nineteen candidates: John G. Myers, and C. W. Macurie, Washington, T. W. Harrison, Topeka, Kas., T. P. Gordon, Columbus, O.; F. H. Mitchell, Bath, Me.; Charles H. Allender, Washington; A. G. Patton, Columbus, O.; S. C. Raub, Washington; Issae Seward and W. H. Wilson, Towards Kas., P. F. Fletcaft, St. Louis.

main of the hatel was beautifully decorated with maidenbair forms and Southern amilax, which draped the chandellers and walls. On the tables were large bouquets of roses and white and yellow chrysanthemums. Many small colored candles burned around the beautiful flowers. Over a hundred guests were present, including the members of the order, their ladies, and friends, and Provincial Grand Marechal George E. Corson acted as tosst-master, and when the feasting was well under way he called upon a number of able after-dinner speakers.

All coasts were brief and direct, and full of the grace that comes from the extemporaneous flow of sentiment. The dinner was brought to a close by the singing of

They met at the House of the Temple at 12 o'clock sharp, and started in upon their second day's session. The afternoon was devoted to the consideration of the report of the committee on nominations in regard to the recommendation of the honorary thirty-thirders and the Knight Commandery of the Court of the Hours was not acted

CADY'S VERY BLACK EYES.

this morning.

There fighters did not do any advertising and very little taiking, and consequently got their work in before any ice occurred.

FINANCIAL.

who desire to build a home for themselves our obtain the necessary money of this company honey to loan in sums to suit o real estate, stocks, bonds, aharest received this morning a dispatch from J. J. Quinn. of Pittsburg, Maher's manager and backer, saying that he was prepared to bet $5,000 that Maher could whip Cogbett with any sized gloves.

VERY QUIET MARKET.

Grows Quieter Towards Closing on Account of a "Kaffir" Slump. New York, Oct. 22.—A quiet condition of affairs prevailed at the stock exchange again this morning, and the market, while irregular, was in the main firm.

Furnished by Frank Wilson Brown, broker, Manhattan Elevased.

Washington Stock Exchange.

90 1101/6 111 Wash Market to let ea. 1973-1911

5,007 recired annually.

Wash Mark to haven wa. 1912-17

Wash Mark to haven wa. 1914-17

Wash Mark to haven wa. 1914-17

Wash Lt. Intantry lat 6s. 1904

Wash Lt. Intantry lat 7's, 1905

Auttonal Bank Studies

Bank of Washington

Bank of Washington 310

Nat Safe Deposit & Trust
Wash Loan & Trust
Am Security & Trust
Wash Safe Deposit RAILBOAD STOCKS.

District Title
TREPIONE STOCKS
Pennsylvania. 38
Chosapeake and Potomac. 33
American Graphisphone 3
Pheumatic Gun Carriage. 33

ley City Brick.
Lincoln Hall.
Inter-OceanBuilding.
Norganthaler Lincotype...

is a Rite Masonry under any one government.

"The Southern jurisdiction was organized, and without any authority whatever dates the organization back to 1801, and the members finding the irregularity of the organization at the time, disbanded when it was about a year and a haif old.

"Nothing much was heard of this jurisdiction until 1858 or '59, at which time Albert Pike took it up and remodeled, as he says, the rituals, and dated the organization back to the irregular organization of 1801, to make it older, if possible, than ours. The Southern jurisdiction is working under a forged constitution of 1786, which was made for convenience sake only, and which permitted several central

INSPECTORS-GENERAL'S COUNCIL

Hon. Thomas H. Caswell Elected Grand Commander of the Masons. The officers and members of the Supreme Council of inspectors general of the thirty third degree, Ancient and Accepted Rite of Free Masonary in the southern jurisdic-tion of the United States, met against noon to-day in the House of the Temple, corner of Third and E streets northwest, to con-tinue the work of their biennial session.

of officers, which occurred late in the afternoon. The grand commander elected, as it had been generally conceded beforehand, was Hon. Thomas Hubball Caswell, of San was non- rhomas hubban caswed, of San Francisco. The vacancy in this office was caused by the death of Gen. Phillip Crosby Tucker, of Galveston, Texas, which occurred in this city about a year ago, and as the officers of the Supreme Council hold their office for life, the vacancy caused a reneral promotion, although not necessa rily in succession.

Other officers elected were O. S. Long, of Charleston, W. Va., heatenant grand commander, E. T. Carr, of Leavenworth, Kans.

grand prior, Samuel E. Adams, of Minneapo-lis, grand chancellor, Martin Collins, of St. Webber, of Washington, general secretary, Gilmore Mederith, of Baltimore, treasurer general, R. C. Jordan, of Omaha, grand almoner, and S. W. Todd, of New Orleans, grand auditor. grand auditor.

The allocution of the grand commander was delivered by Judge Caswell. It covered the history of the Supreme Council since the last meeting, and acts performed by the head of the order. The report showed a balance of $37,000 on hand, notwithstanding the fact that nearly $20,000 has been spent on the Temple, in this city, during the past two years. The purchase of the adjoining property on C street at a price of $10,000 was recommended and at a price of $10,000 was recommended and a special committee on the centennial cele-bration of 1901, which will be held in St. Louis, was appointed.

The Supreme Council has in its possession in this city a collection of Indian relics of their own.

The Provincial Grand Lodge of Royal Order of Scotland for the United States, although not officially connected with the Supreme Council, always holds its annual session when the latter order meets, as the majority of its members belong to the Rite. It was in session at the Scottish Rite Hall, on G street, near Tenth street north-west, all day yesterday. William Oscar Roome, of this city, acted as grand com-

Patton, Columbus, O.; S. C. Raub, Washington; Issac Seward and W. H. Wilson, Topeka, Kas.; P. F. Fletcraft, St. Louis; B. F. Nelson, St. Louis; B. H. C. Bowan, Topeka; John McGregor and E. G. Schafhirt, Washington; W. E. Richardson, Duluth, Minn.; William E. Annin, Omain, Neb.; O. R. Wish, Portland, Me. and James H. Trimble, Washington.

The annual dinner of the Royal Order was served at the Raleigh last evening in cinborate style. The handsome banquet hall of the hatel was beautifully decorated with maidenbair forms and Southern smi-

"Auld Lang Syne."

The Supreme Council visited a photographing establishment this morning and were photographed both separately and Excited the Sympathy of Judge Mil-ler, But Was Fined Nevertheless. There was a prize-fight out on Rock reek road hast Sunday morning, and both participants were very much in evidence with black eyes in Judge Miller's court quently got their work in before any interference occurred.

Jamer Fenton keeps an oyster house and grocery store at Rock Creek road. He has a brother Mike, who works for him.

The Fentons don't like John Cady, and when Cady called at the house Sunday morning with Ed Tyne, the prize lighter. Cady and Mike had some words, and Cady, who was drank, asked Mike, who wasaober, to come over in the woods and have it out.

Mike Fenton took advantage of Cady's drufkenness and went with him and had it out—that is to say, Cady's eyes were both nearly put out. Cady has the worst face eyer presented in court.

Fenton knocked Cady down, and the latter, being too drunk to get back on his feet, was pounded until his face was almost a jelly. The judge felt sorry for Cady and gave Fenton a lecture on his brutality and fined them both $20.

"That neighborhood is getting a terrible reputation," said his honor. "Con-only, and which permitted several central heads of Scottish Rite Masonry under one

The most important business transacted laring yesterday's meeting was the election